

Frequently Asked Questions related to release of scholarship through DBT

PART A – FOR FRESH SCHOLARSHIP FOR THE AY 2015-16

Q. Where to contact for any query?

Ans: Any query related to JK SSS should be sent to following mail ID

jkadmission2015@aicte-india.org

Q. Scholarship sanctioned is less than the claimed amount.

Ans: Following is the maximum ceiling for the scholarship under the scheme:

Type of Fee	Medical Stream	Engineering Stream	General Stream
Tuition Fee	Rs.3.00 Lakhs	Rs.1.25 Lakhs	Rs.0.30 Lakhs
Hostel, Mess and Books and Stationery	Rs.1.00 Lakh	Rs.1.00 Lakh	Rs.1.00 Lakh

The Scholarship is restricted based on the tuition fee/hostel fee fixed by the Fee Committee of the respective State, where student is studying and uploaded receipts, whichever is less. Refundable fees paid by students are not reimbursed under the scheme.

Q. I have received only part of the Scholarship amount, how to claim the remaining amount of scholarship?

Ans: If a student has NOT paid any fee to the college, Tuition Fee is released as per the fee prescribed by the State Fee Committee and Hostel Fee for only one semester is released. Scholarship in all such cases will be released in two installments. Remaining fee will be released in second installment, during Cycle II in the month of January.

Q. I am not staying in College Hostel and uploaded the Rent Reasonability Certificate but not received any scholarship towards my accommodation and mess, What should I do?

Ans: Duly attested Receipts in support of Rent /Rent agreement and mess expenses should also to be uploaded along with the Rent Reasonability Certificate. In case such receipts are not uploaded so far, the same may be uploaded when the Portal opens for cycle II in the month of January and then you will receive the amount as per ceiling mentioned earlier.

Q. Is it necessary that uploaded Bank details should have IFSC Code?

Ans: YES, the IFSC code must be mentioned on the Pass Book along with account number.

Q. In case Bank Account is a joint account having my name, can I give that account for DBT?

Ans: No, Bank account must be on the name of beneficiary only and it should be a no frill account.

Q. Is it mandatory to have same name in the bank account, as it is in my class XII certificate?

Ans: Yes. Both name in the bank account and class XII certificate must be same. Please be careful and ensure this.

Q. I have received message that my application for scholarship is approved for DBT, but scholarship amount has not been credited to my account.

Ans: It normally takes 2-3 working days to transfer the money from bank to the account of the beneficiary.

Q. I have taken admission on my own in an Engineering Course. Am I eligible for scholarship under the scheme?

Ans: All such students, who have taken admission on their own in Centrally Funded Institutes such as IITs, NITs or AICTE approved institutions with at least one course accredited by NBA are only eligible for scholarship.

Q. I have taken admission on my own in a General Course. Am I eligible for scholarship under the scheme?

Ans: All such students, who have taken admission on their own in Centrally Funded Institutes or institutions approved by UGC under section 12 B of UGC Act are only eligible for scholarship. Approval under 2f of UGC is not considered for scholarship but only 12B approved universities/colleges will be considered.
