F.No.27/T&LB/Pay/01/2024-25/8928

Date: 14th May, 2024

To,

All Principal / Directors of Technical Education.

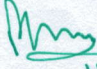

Sub: Clarification regarding clause no. 3.0 (i) "Mandatory Teacher Training" of the AICTE Regulation 2019 published on March, 1st 2019 (Diploma).

Dear Sir/Madam

The Council is in receipt of numerus representations from faculty members and letter from Principals/Director of Technical Education seeking clarification on mandatory teachers training applicable for senior faculty members for their eligible promotion to higher scales. It has come to the notice of Council that the promotions to higher scales of faculty members are held up due to the want of mandatory fulfilment of training. In that regard, the following is issued.

The appointing authority / State Directorate of Technical Education / affiliating universities are advised not to hold the case of eligible career advancement of senior faculty members for the want of fulfilment of training. Their case can be considered even without fulfilment of mandatory training and such faculty member may be advised to fulfil the Training Requirement for Promotion of teachers from all the disciplines as per Annexure – III of AICTE Gazette Notification dated 01.03.2019 within a time frame of 12 months form the date of issuance of this clarification subject to the fulfilment of other conditions as envisaged in the respective notification for promotion to higher scale. However, the relevance of courses under gone by faculty members with more than 5 years' experience, as a part of fulfilment of training shall be ascertained by the appointing authority / Affiliating University / Directorate of Technical Education as the case may be applicable to.

This issues with the approval of the Competent Authority.
