Minor Degree in Universal Human Values (UHV)
MESSAGE

With a view to enhance the employability skills and impart deep knowledge in emerging areas which are usually not being covered in Undergraduate Degree credit framework, AICTE has come up with the concept of ‘Minor Degree’ in emerging areas. The concept of Minor Degree is discussed in the Approval Process Handbook (APH) for the academic session 2020-21 issued by AICTE. Minor Degree will carry 18 to 20 credits in addition to the credits essential for obtaining the Under Graduate Degree in Major Discipline (i.e. 163 credits usually).

Keeping in mind the need of manpower in emerging areas, AICTE with the help of industry-academia experts, has framed the curriculum for Minor Degree in Universal Human Values (UHV) to develop teachers, parents and policy makers of tomorrow who will have a humane worldview along with technical skills and strive to ensure value-based living for themselves as well as the society. The degree course will facilitate developing sufficient number of teachers to impart value-based education right from primary to higher education across the country.

Courses have been designed after rigorous brainstorming and considering the inputs from the experts of corresponding domain. I am hopeful that knowledge of this emerging area will help for nurturing students to their full human potential, so they can contribute to the development of an equitable and just society and promote national development.

I gratefully acknowledge the time and efforts of all those who were involved in preparation of this curriculum especially, the contributions of the members of the Working Group: Prof. HD Charan, Dr. Rajneesh Arora, Mr. Rajul Asthana, Dr. Kumar Sambhav, Dr. Gopal Babu, and Sh. Dhirendra Chaturvedi.

The well timed initiative to have this model curriculum addressing the need by Prof. M.P Poonia, Vice Chairman, Prof. Rajive Kumar, Member Secretary, AICTE is highly appreciated. I also appreciate the continuous effort put in coordinating the complete process of development of this curriculum by members of the Policy and Academic Planning Bureau of AICTE namely, Dr. Ramesh Unnikrishnan, Adviser-II; Dr. Pradeep Bhaskar, Assistant Director, Mr. Rakesh Kumar Pandit, Young Professional and others.

Minor Degree in Universal Human Values (UHV)
Minor Degree in Universal Human Values (UHV)

The NEP 2020 gives a clarion call to make the important and urgently required effort for nurturing students to their full human potential, so they can contribute to the development of an equitable and just society and promote national development.

AICTE has been making this effort for value-education → value-based education → value-based living since 2017. For this it has already placed in its Model Curriculum two mandatory value and culture inputs:

- Mandatory 3-weeks Student Induction Program for all newly joined students, which includes
  - UHV-I: Universal Human Values - Introduction
  - IKS-I: Introduction to Indian Culture and Civilization (with some present practices)

- UHV-II: Universal Human Values – Understanding Harmony and Ethical Human Conduct (a 3-credit mandatory course for all students during 1st semester)

- IKS-II: Indian Culture and Civilisation with its Knowledge Systems and Traditions (a non-credit mandatory course for all students during 2nd semester)

In response to NEP 2020, AICTE has decided to additionally offer minor degrees in UHV, IKS, etc.

- Minor degree can be given for students who have completed the minimum credit requirement of 18-20 credits in the related stream

- Courses are to be offered as part of the 163 credits and also offered as additional credits (over and above 163) for minor degree

Vision for Minor Degree in UHV

The minor degree in UHV will help to develop teachers, parents and policy makers of tomorrow who will have a humane worldview along with technical skills and strive to ensure value-based living for themselves as well as the society. The degree course will facilitate developing sufficient number of teachers to impart value-based education right from primary to higher education across the country.

Salient Features of the Courses

The salient features of the courses are:

1. They present a universal approach to value education by developing the right understanding of reality (i.e. a worldview of the reality “as it is”) through the process of self-exploration.

2. The courses are presented in the form of a dialogue whereby a set of proposals about various aspects of the reality are presented and the students are encouraged to self-exprobe the proposals by verifying them on the basis of their natural acceptance within oneself and validate experientially in living.
3. The prime focus throughout the courses is toward affecting a qualitative transformation in the life of the student rather than just a transfer of information.

4. While introducing the holistic worldview and its implications, a critical appraisal of the prevailing notions is also made to enable the students discern the difference on their own right.

Employability

It will have a direct impact on desirable, common graduate attributes\(^1\), enhancing employability in the area of the major degree.

Further, in the present state of increasing problems of human-human conflict, global warming and climate change, it will help prepare the urgently required technical professionals for sustainable and value-based living.

It will enable the preparation of teachers for value education and soon, value-based education.

Higher Studies and Research

Programs of higher studies and research will be required for this to happen. Some of these are mentioned, below:

- PG Diploma – Universal Human Values
- PG Diploma – Holistic Health (Universal Health Principles, Guidelines and Practices)
- M Tech – Holistic Development, Technologies and Systems
- Research on Human Psychology (meaning of full human potential), Human Economics (leading to prosperity in every family), Sustainable Production (reversing global warming and resource depletion, leading to mutual enrichment) and so on

Course Objectives

- To help the student see the need for developing a holistic perspective of life
- To sensitize the student about the scope of life – individual, family (inter-personal relationship), society and nature/existence
- To strengthen self-reflection
- To develop more confidence and commitment to understand, learn and act accordingly

Course Methodology

1. The methodology of this course is explorational and thus universally adaptable. It involves a systematic and rational study of the human being vis-à-vis the rest of existence.
2. It is free from any dogma or value prescriptions.
3. It is a process of self-investigation and self-exploration, and not of giving sermons. Whatever is found as truth or reality is stated as a proposal and the students are facilitated to verify it in their own right, based on their Natural Acceptance and subsequent Experiential Validation – the whole existence is the lab and every activity is a source of reflection.
4. This process of self-exploration takes the form of a dialogue between the teacher and the students to begin with, and then to continue within the student in every activity, leading to continuous self-evolution.
5. This self-exploration also enables them to critically evaluate their pre-conditionings and present beliefs.
6. Activities and exercises are used to enable the student to discover the need for values on their own right

Catalogue Description

The purpose of the course is to help develop a holistic perspective about life. A self-reflective methodology of teaching is adopted. It opens the space for the student to explore his/her role (value) in all aspects of living – as an individual, as a member of a family, as a part of the society and as a unit in nature. Through this process of self-exploration, students are able to discover the values intrinsic in them.

Course Objectives

- To help the students appreciate the essential complementarily between 'VALUES' and 'SKILLS' to ensure sustained happiness and prosperity which are the core aspirations of all human beings.
- To facilitate the development of a Holistic perspective among students towards life and profession as well as towards happiness and prosperity based on a correct understanding of the Human reality and the rest of existence. Such a holistic perspective forms the basis of Universal Human Values and movement towards value-based living in a natural way.
- To highlight plausible implications of such a Holistic understanding in terms of ethical human conduct, trustful and mutually fulfilling human behaviour and mutually enriching interaction with Nature.

Thus, this course is intended to provide a much-needed orientational input in value education to the young enquiring minds.

Course Methodology

1. The methodology of this course is explorational and thus universally adaptable. It involves a systematic and rational study of the human being vis-à-vis the rest of existence.
2. The course is in the form of 28 lectures (discussions) and 14 practice sessions.
3. It is free from any dogma or value prescriptions.
4. It is a process of self-investigation and self-exploration, and not of giving sermons. Whatever is found as truth or reality is stated as a proposal and the students are facilitated to verify it in their own right, based on their Natural Acceptance and subsequent Experiential Validation – the whole existence is the lab and every activity is a source of reflection.
5. This process of self-exploration takes the form of a dialogue between the teacher and the students to begin with, and then to continue within the student in every activity, leading to continuous self-evolution.
6. This self-exploration also enables them to critically evaluate their pre-conditionings and present beliefs.
Catalogue Description

Every human being has two sets of questions to answer for his/her life: a) what to do? and, b) how to do? The first set pertains to the value domain, and the other to the skill domain. Both are complimentary, but value domain has a higher priority. Today, education has become more and more skill biased, and hence, the basic aspiration of a human being, that is to live with happiness and prosperity, gets defeated, in spite of abundant technological progress. This course is aimed at giving inputs that will help to ensure the right understanding and right feelings in the students in their life and profession, enabling them to lead an ethical life. In this course, the students learn the process of self-exploration, the difference between the Self and the Body, the naturally acceptable feelings in relationships in a family, workplace and society, the comprehensive human goal in the society, the mutual fulfillment in the nature and the co-existence in existence. As a natural outcome of such inputs, they are able to evaluate an ethical life and profession ahead.

Course Syllabus

Course Objectives

- To help the students understand the values ensuring justice in human-human relationship
- To develop the competence to think about the conceptual framework of humane society which includes undivided society (relationship based) and universal human order (system based).
- To help the students have the exposure for transition from current state to humane society (the undivided society and universal human order).

Course Methodology

1. The methodology of this course is explorational and thus universally adaptable. It involves a systematic and rational study of the human being vis-à-vis the rest of existence.

2. It is free from any dogma or set of dos and don’ts related to values.

3. It is a process of self-investigation and self-exploration, and not of giving sermons. Whatever is found as truth or reality is stated as a proposal and the students are facilitated and encouraged to verify it in their own right, based on their Natural Acceptance and subsequent Experiential Validation.

4. This process of self-exploration takes the form of a dialogue between the teacher and the students to begin with, and then to continue within the student leading to continuous self-evolution.

5. This self-exploration also enables them to critically evaluate their pre-conditionings and present beliefs.

Catalogue Description

A human being naturally accepts to live in family with fulfilment. Every family is a part of society. We have been talking of undivided society for ages. The course aims at developing the vision of undivided society and universal human order in the students. For this the students need to understand the values embedded in every relationship and see their role in ensuring justice in every relationship. They also need to understand the human-rest of nature relationship and role of work in its fulfilment. The course addresses these issues in a comprehensive manner and proposes the steps of transition from current state to universal human order and human tradition.

Course Syllabus

Module 1: Introduction to the course
Basic aspiration of a Human Being and program for its fulfillment, need for family and relationship for a Human Being, Human-human relationship and role of behavior in its fulfillment, Human-rest of Nature relationship and role of work in its fulfillment, Comprehensive Human Goal, Need for Undivided Society, Need for Universal Human Order, an appraisal of the Current State, Appraisal of Efforts in this Direction in Human History.

Module 2: Understanding Human-Human Relationship & its fulfillment
Recognition of Human-Human Relationship, Recognition of feelings in relationship, Established Values and Expressed Values in Relationship, interrelatedness of feelings and their fulfillment, Expression of feelings, Types of relationship and their purpose, mutual evaluation in relationship, meaning of justice in relationship, Justice leading to culture, civilization and Human Conduct.

Module 3: Justice from family to world family order

These courses are expected to draw out a minimum set of key points from each philosophy, including:

1. World vision (level of realisation)
   - What is human being?
   - What does this existence consist of (e.g. material + consciousness + space)?
   - How is human being related to other human beings, rest of nature etc.
   - What is the human purpose - individual and collective?
   - What is happiness?
   - What is prosperity?

2. Process to see, to understand

3. What are the human values on the basis of the world-vision (above)
   - How are these values implemented, expressed in living?

4. Program for fulfilment of human purpose at individual level
   - (if this program is successful, what will be the qualities of the human being...)

5. Program for fulfilment of human being at the collective (societal) level
   - (If this collective program is successful, what kind of society will it be? will it ensure wellbeing of all? - conditional or unconditional? Relationship with people (irrespective of their class, caste, creed, gender, faith...)? Relationship with rest-of-nature...)

6. What are the causes of the present-day problems? How will these get resolved?

7. Next step from where we are

Course Objective:
1. To introduce students to the universal health principles
2. To initiate / strengthen the process and practices to keep the Body in harmony
3. To generate interest, commitment and to make effort for realising holistic human health and staying healthy

Course Methodology
1. The methodology of this course is explorational and practically verifiable thus universally adaptable.
2. The students are facilitated and encouraged to verify the content on their own right, based on their Natural Acceptance and subsequent Experiential Validation.
3. This process of self-exploration takes the form of a dialogue between the teacher and the students to begin with, and then to continue within the student leading to continuous self-evolution.
4. This self-exploration also enables them to critically evaluate pre-conditionings and beliefs prevailing in the society at the individual as well as collective level (this helps them to see how to evolve these to higher states so that it results into full development of human potential and provides the basis for a just and equitable society).

Catalogue Description

In this course we will focus our study on efforts at staying healthy on the basis of an understanding of health holistically and in its totality. To ensure this, we will need to make an effort to understand the harmony at all the levels of living – as an individual human being, at the level of the family, society and nature.

In this process we will also learn of values that are inherent in all of us and that can guide our desires (feelings), thoughts and actions and ultimately are interconnected with our health at a most fundamental level. The course thus provides the student with a well-rounded and holistic perspective on health. It fulfils the core aspiration of the present healthcare system. However, it may appear to be in sharp contrast to the present healthcare system that seems largely focused on business for managing disease.
The holistic health course articulates universal health principles which are based on an understanding of the reality. The principles are universal; they are invariant, logical, rational and leading to harmony universally, for all. The course further presents guidelines for health which emerge from the basic principles. While the principles are universal, their implementation in practice vary, taking into account the various differences among human beings on the basis of body type, age, gender etc. and variations in the body resulting from diurnal and seasonal changes in the environment.

Implementation of the principles and guidelines in the form of a complete program on how to stay healthy empowers each and every individual human being to take personal responsibility for his/her own health and be of service to family, society and nature.

This of course has wide and far-reaching implications for the healthcare system in society. Not only does it provide a means of affordable health for all, but it also helps incorporate values in the individual such that the values then guide the medical skills that students learn in their respective institutions.

The expected outcome from this course is for the student to get a broad and holistic perspective on health based on the human being's interconnectedness with the environment as is visible and evident in the reality/nature. It also expects for students to be able to understand values and live by them; to take responsibility for their own health and to be able to see their participation in the larger whole- i.e., service to family and society.

Course Contents:

Module 1: Introduction and Understanding the Human Being

This module discusses the current perspective on health, its lack of a holistic outlook and shortcomings as a result of this. It puts forth the necessity for a change in perspective which can be brought about with better understanding of the reality. It also talks about the entire process of the course. The course learnings are put forward as proposals that students can verify for themselves in a logical way with reasoning and self-exploration rather than in the form of dos and don'ts.

In the process of understanding, the course focuses first and foremost on a complete understanding of the human being and not merely on the physical body of the human being.

The expected outcome from this module is a thorough understanding of the two realities that constitute the human being (the Self and the body), the differences in their needs and fulfillment of these needs, the differences in their activities and responses, the way to maintain harmony and the importance of this background in understanding health (harmony) in the Self and the body.

I. Current health perspective, need for change and process of understanding
   1. Perspective about health – need for change
   2. Process of the Course – process of Self-exploration (on the basis of Natural Acceptance)
II. Understanding the Human being, its Aspirations and fulfillment of these aspirations

3. Human being as a co-existence of Self and body
4. Basic aspiration of every human being- happiness and prosperity in continuity
5. Exploring the meaning of happiness and prosperity
6. Harmony within the Self – desires (feelings) in line with the Natural Acceptance

Practice/activity session for module 1:

1. Observing the Self by the Self (seeing the desires, thoughts and expectations within the Self)
2. Observing the body by the Self

Module 2: Universal health Principles and Guidelines

This module explains, very clearly and in depth, the universal health principles that are derived from an understanding of the reality as it is. It elaborates separately on the principles relating to the body and those relating to the Self and its interaction with the body.

The module further charts out the guidelines for health which are drawn from the basic universal health principles. These guidelines take into account the differences in human beings at the level of their physical body and personality and the impact of the changes constantly occurring in one’s environment.

The expected outcome of this module is for students to see the universality of the health principles, the logic and rationality behind them and to understand the guidelines for health drawn from the understanding of the health principles as the foundation.

III. Universal health principles for all

7. Universal Health principles (in accordance with the reality) – Principles relating to the body
8. Universal Health Principles (contd.) - Principles relating to interaction of the Self with the body
9. Universal health principles (contd.)

IV. Guidelines for health based on the principles

11. Guidelines for Health (contd.)
12. Guidelines for health (contd.)

Practice/Activity session for module 2:

1. Observing the interaction between the Self and the body by the Self
2. Observing (by the Self) who is the decision maker in the interaction between the Self and the body

Module 3: Implementation (part 1 of 2)

Modules 3 and 4 describe the practical details of implementing the health guidelines on a day-to-day basis. Module 3 deals with our intake and describes the importance of having our daily routine (lifestyle) in synchronization with the diurnal and seasonal rhythms in nature.

V. Implementation of Health in the Individual
13. Program for staying healthy – practices and processes
14. Intake
15. Intake (contd.)
16. Intake (contd.)
17. Daily routine
18. Daily routine (contd.)
19. Daily routine (contd.)

Practice session for module 3:
1. Maintaining an intake that is nurturing for the body
2. Maintaining a daily routine that is in synchronization with natural cycles

Module 4: Implementation (part 2 of 2)
The fourth module is a continuation of the topic that was started in the third module regarding the practical aspects of implementing the health guidelines on a daily basis. This particular module deals with the practical benefits of physically working with nature, physical exercises and postures to regulate the internal and external organs of the body (e.g. yoga) and breath regulation (e.g. pranayam) and incorporating these practices in the daily routine of the student’s life.

The module also provides an understanding of common herbs and spices that can be found in the kitchens of most households (particularly in India) and how these can be used to bring the body back to harmony and health if and when it does go into disharmony (ill-health). It also throws light on when an individual can treat minor ailments at home and when one needs to resort to the use of medication and treatment (a dependence on external machines etc. if the body has gone into chronic or permanent disharmony).

VI. Implementation of Health in the Individual (Contd.)
20. Labor
21. Exercise
22. The practice of postures for regulating the internal and external body organs (Yoga) and its impact on the health of the body
23. The practice of regulation of breath (pranayam) and its impact on the health of the body
24. Use of household remedies to keep body in harmony/bring it back from disharmony to harmony
25. When to resort to medication (when body is in temporary disharmony) and treatment (when the body is in permanent disharmony)

Practice/Activity session for Module 4:
1. Incorporating the practice of yoga and pranayam in the daily routine
2. Practically identifying household remedies and using them for minor ailments

Module 5: The Healthy Environment
The fifth module emphasizes the importance of seeing the human being as an integral part of the larger whole. This larger framework includes all that the human being is interconnected with and interdependent on i.e. the environment of the human being. This includes relationships within the family, the society and all of nature/ existence. The module helps the student to understand the harmony at all these levels, the importance of living in harmony at all these levels and the impact of the environment (family, society and nature) on the health of the human being.

VII. Understanding the role of the environment in the health of an individual
26. Impact of environment (family, society and nature) on health of body
27. Understanding harmony in family (trust in relationships)
28. Understanding harmony in family (contd.) (respect in relationships)
29. Understanding harmony in family (contd.) (other feelings in relationship)
30. Understanding harmony in Society (trust/relationships, system in society)
31. Understanding harmony in Nature (innate order and harmony versus struggle for survival)
32. Understanding existence as co-existence (units submerged in space)

Practice sessions for Module 5:
1. Practically contributing to the health within the family, working out the possibility of contributing to health at the level of society
2. Working with nature and making effort to maintain the harmony in nature using cyclic processes

Module 6: Holistic Health

This last module is dedicated to a final look at the health of the human being in totality – in a holistic manner. It also briefly touches on implementation of health guidelines at levels beyond those of the individual i.e. implementation at the level of family and society.

The module ends with providing an understanding about the purpose or goal of the human being and looks at health in the body as a means of attaining this higher purpose rather than assuming health in the body as being the goal in itself.

A final sum-up of the entire course is also provided in this module.

VIII. Holistic Human health
33. Holistic Human Health (Health of Self + Health of body + Health of Environment (i.e. family, society, nature)
34. Implementation of health at level of family – designated family member to take responsibility
35. Implementation of health at level of society – health systems
36. Purpose of a healthy body and Sum up

Practice/Activity sessions for Module 6:
1. Observing what contributes to harmony within the Self (feeling of relationship, harmony and co-existence)
2. Designing a health system for society that contributes to harmony at every level. The student also needs to work out how he/she can contribute in this system and process.
